

PPMA ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

NAME OF THE ASSOCIATION

1. The name of the Association is

THE PUBLIC SERVICE PEOPLE MANAGERS' ASSOCIATION, hereafter referred to as PPMA.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

2. PPMA is the first choice association for human resources, organisational development and people professionals working in public services.

We are a collective voice for a professional, passionate and diverse public service HR and OD community. With political, social and economic challenges continuing to make unprecedented demands on our public service workforce, we utilise our connections to influence and support key decision-makers and stakeholders involved in people management and workforce issues.

3. PPMA exists to:

- a) Champion excellence in public service delivery through effective people management and development, underpinned by knowledgeable and skilled HR/OD practitioners working at all levels of public service.
- b) Promote the highest professional standards in public service people management by working in partnership with the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) and other relevant professional institutions.
- c) Influence national policy and legislation on workforce matters by working in collaboration with relevant organisations such as the CIPD, the Local Government Association, Central Government Organisations, Trades Unions and other professional bodies representing HR/OD professionals in public services.
- d) Raise the profile of people management and development within public services through research, policy statements, conferences, webinars, seminars, and products.

e) Enhance the Association's voice by effective use of social media and communication channels and proactively engaging with the HR/OD published and online media organisations.

f) Facilitate informed debate in respect of the people management implications arising from public sector reforms, spending reviews and reorganisation.

g) Promote and support the embedding of equality, diversity and inclusion in public sector policy, service delivery and workforce development.

h) Encourage member engagement through regional and national networks, working groups and project teams formed or contributed to by the Association.

SECTION 1

VISION AND VALUES

OUR VISION

4. At PPMA, our vision is to lead continuous improvement of people management and development within public services. PPMA aim to provide an authoritative voice for public service Human Resources (HR) and Organisational Development (OD) professions through our collective strength of connecting people and understanding of people strategies.

OUR VALUES

5. PPMA values underpin all that we do:

- We Listen – to diverse perspectives with openness and respect.
- We Engage – with all stakeholders to shape effective workforce strategies.
- We Advocate – for the people profession and the value it brings to public service.
- We Challenge – ourselves and others to think differently and act boldly.

We bring our values to life through:

- Influencing – shaping thinking at all levels.
- Sharing – knowledge, best practice, and learning.
- Developing – people, ideas, and the future of our profession.

6. PPMA's purpose, vision and values are set by the Strategic Board (see section Our Governance) and contained within the PPMA Business Plan and may be amended as and when required by the Strategic Board to take account of changes within public services. Any key or fundamental changes will be reported by the Secretary or Treasurer to the next relevant Annual General Meeting.

SECTION 2

MEMBERSHIP

7. PPMA Membership is open to all:

- HR/OD professionals in public services
- HR/OD professionals in organisations supporting the delivery of HR/OD in public service organisations

- Other professionals who have “people management” as part of their role
8. The criteria for membership may be varied or updated from time to time by the Strategic Board and the final determination of eligibility for membership is delegated by the Strategic Board to the Secretary and/or Treasurer.
 9. We have corporate membership for organisations at rates dependant on size and type of organisation. For example, smaller local government authorities pay a lower rate than larger or single-tier local authorities. We also allow regional based discounted membership rates for a collective of public service organisations, for example, Manchester local authorities. Corporate membership provides access to PPMA content for ‘ALL’ HR people within an organisation. Members do not have to be named, but we do recommend adding names and contact details to receive news and event updates and we require contact details for anyone attending PPMA events.
 10. Individual membership is permitted for HR/OD professionals providing individual consultancy-based HR/OD services to public service organisations.
 11. Membership rates and joining arrangements for organisations and individuals are published on the PPMA website – www.ppma.org.uk
 12. Members are entitled to vote on matters of substance at the Annual General Meeting as well as election to roles within the PPMA Strategic Board. Members are also eligible to stand for election to unpaid Strategic Board roles.
 13. Membership of the Association permits attendance at or access to any conferences, webinars, seminars, products or services that the Association produces or sponsors. Individuals attending PPMA events must register their details with the PPMA for the benefits of attendance records and contact arrangements.
 14. Resignation of membership by organisations or individuals may be made at any time by giving 1 months’ notice to admin@ppma.org.uk However, there are no membership fee refunds.
 15. Retention of membership is dependent upon the timely payment of membership fees and the maintenance of professional standards as defined by the Association and the relevant codes of conduct set by individual public services. Where members fail to meet the relevant levels of conduct, then membership may be summarily terminated by the Association without notice.
 16. The Strategic Board will investigate the circumstances and communicate the findings and decision to the member/ organisation.

SUBSCRIPTION FEES

17. Subscription rates are determined by the Strategic Board following recommendations by the Treasurer.
18. Subscriptions typically run from July to June in accordance with the Associations financial year. However, annual membership can also take place from the initial joining date of a new membership.
19. Renewal invoices for the financial year will be sent to all current members by the Finance Manager.
20. Non -payment of the current annual subscription fees due within 6 months of the anniversary date will result in summary termination of membership.
